

A BRIEF HISTORY

Step into Crolla's historic past

Crolla's Gelateria represents an award winning family company that has been producing traditional Italian ice-cream in Glasgow for over a hundred and twenty years. It was 1895 when a young Serafino Crolla exchanged the warm sunshine of Italy for the less predictable climates of Scotland, setting up his first shop in Queen Mary Street, Glasgow.

His son, Giuseppe, opened a second shop in Clydebank, and after the first World War he returned to Scotland and opened Premier Cafe in Main Street, Bridgeton. This was followed by expansion into the two adjoining premises.

We became more than just an ice cream shop

The Crolla family had started up an ice cream factory and had 30 vans selling their delicious ice cream around the streets of Glasgow in the 1950's.

Today the firm still supplies ice cream vans but has expanded to supply shops, cafes, wholesalers, restaurants and hotels. Although they are firmly committed as ever to producing top quality ice cream, the range of products Crolla's now supplies is immense.

We have great plans for the future

Peter Crolla, Serafino's great-grandson, has now established the fourth generation of Crolla's – a family firm in the true sense of the word.
